PASTOR’S CORNER

Since the Russian invasion of the Ukraine, our Dominican brothers in Ukraine have been a bright light of faith in the most challenging times. The Dominican communities in Kiev and Kharkiv are experiencing the continuing bombardment of those cities. They are sheltering and feeding their neighbors and helping them evacuate from the cities. The Dominicans located

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

In four other Ukrainian cities are also experiencing air attacks, helping shelter, feed and move people to the west.

The Dominicans working in Ukraine are from the Polish province. They number over 30 friars. In peacetime they staff four parishes and run a theological institute and an orphanage. Fr. Jaroslaw Krawiec, OP, ministering at the Priory in Kiev is posting a daily diary of the Dominicans in Ukraine. He reports on his personal experiences and the experiences of the brothers throughout the country. Through the use of technology, the Dominicans are coordinating their efforts and contributing to the greater relief work of the Church. You can follow Fr. Jaroslaw's reports at the Western Dominican Province Website: www.opwest.org. Please go to the donation relief page where his diary is posted. Also posted there is a video message from the Polish Dominicans and special prayers for Ukraine.

Although Ukraine is over 4,500 miles from Anchorage we are not incapable of rendering assistance. When Jesus says those who follow him will have many mothers, brothers, sisters and homes in this life, he means this in two ways: prayer and material support. 1) The prayers of many far away can strengthen and support those who are physically cut off. We pray and offer acts of penance for the good of their souls and relief of their suffering. Only God, in his wisdom and understanding, knows how he will give his grace to those in their greatest need. 2) We can send material support to help the Church in her efforts to care for people and preserve life. Consider making a donation to the Polish Dominicans to support their work in Ukraine. This can be done on our Western Province website: www.opwest.org. From all of the reports it seems the loss of life, destruction and suffering will only increase as the scale and weight of the war expand. Please pray for Ukraine and consider making a donation to our Dominican brothers who are doing the work of God in the middle of a full-scale war.

Parish News: Today our three catechumens at Holy Family - Sharon Hoffman, Kate Weddleton, and Kevin Ormeno - will be presented to the Archbishop at Our Lady of Guadalupe Cathedral. They are preparing to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist at the Easter Vigil on April 16. We will also be receiving Jesse Gobeli, Jason Eastman, Harrison Nabors, and Lane Reinke, who have been baptized in another Christian denomination, into the Church at the Vigil. Please keep them in your prayers as they make their final preparations for entry into the life of the Church.

This weekend Fr. Andy is in Glennallen. I will be away March 8-18 in California for the quarterly Dominican Province Council meeting and the annual Dominican Superiors meeting.
