ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF ANCHORAGE-JUNEAU

The Most Reverend Andrew Bellisario, CM, Archbishop

Staffed by the Friars of the

Dominican Province of the Most Holy Name of Jesus

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 1, 2022

Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

“Christ’s Charge to Peter”

Raphael, 1483 - 1520

PASTOR’S CORNER

“So he said to them, ‘Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something.’ So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, ‘It is the Lord.’ When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea.”

John 21:6-7

MOTHERS’ DAY

LAST SUNDAY FOR CCD

MAY CROWNING. At 930A Mass

The cast. The catch. The call. The last time Peter, James, John and Andrew caught this many fish was three years ago on the day they met Jesus. On that day Jesus called them away from their boats to follow him and become “fishers of men.”

Today Jesus calls them again. He speaks their native “language” of fishing as code for the language of God and faith. Their second great catch could only come from one person, and that person is Jesus. John knows it’s Jesus, and Peter believes John’s testimony and jumps into the water.

For our salvation and happiness, God speaks our language. Jesus becoming man. Jesus dying on the Cross. Jesus rising from the dead. In Jesus, God speaks our human language to elevate us to His divine life. He speaks our language of life, suffering and love. He understands, in the midst of great suffering and doubt, the tremendous human capacity to endure if there is hope. As St. Paul says in his letter to the Romans: “If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?”

If God speaks our language of humanity and the language of fishing to his apostles, we should not doubt that he speaks our personal language as well. His grace builds upon our nature. If there is something important God wants to tell us, he isn’t going to do it only once and in a way that is foreign to us. He will repeat the message in ways that we can hear it. Often it is through the people and through the particular circumstances in our lives.

Our job is to have the desire to hear what God wants to tell us. We have to listen to God. We can resist the will of God in many ways. The first and most efficient way to resist God is to stop listening to him.

Today the Apostles have something that allows them to hear Jesus that they didn’t have the day they first met him. They have the “ears” of faith. They have spent three years learning how to listen to Jesus both in a literal sense and with a faithful heart and mind. Peter’s faith is now so strong that he doesn’t argue with Jesus about casting nets like he did three years ago. In fact, he is able to place his trust in the faith of others. On hearing John’s testimony that it is the Lord, Peter jumps over the side of the boat and swims to Jesus.
